Instructions for Denial/Counterclaim (Small Claims Court)

A Denial is a written response to the Plaintiff's Statement of Small Clams. If the Defendant chooses to file a Denial, they must file it with the Clerk of Court who will send a copy to the Plaintiff. If a Denial is not filed, the court may grant the Plaintiff everything requested in the Plaintiff's Statement of Small Claims and enter a Default Judgment against the Defendant.

- You must date and sign the Denial/Counterclaim and provide your address and telephone number;
- If you are filing a Counterclaim, complete the Verification portion. You do not need to do this if you are just filing a denial. Do not fill out the verification until you are in the presence of a notary public or clerk of court. Make sure to bring identification to show them. A notary public can usually be found at the bank and sometimes in the courthouse. The Clerk of Court can also complete this section. The Clerk of Court will reject this form if you made a Counterclaim but did not complete the verification;
- Make a photocopy of the Denial/Counterclaim; one for your file and another to be served on the Plaintiff. The original must be filed with the Clerk of Court. Please note a filing fee will be assessed by the Clerk of Court office for the service of the Counterclaim.

Complete a Case Filing Statement and file it along with the Denial/Counterclaim at the Clerk of Court office. The Case Filing Statement can be found at https://ujslawhelp.sd.gov/smallclaims.aspx.

WARNING: By signing your name, you are telling the court that you are telling the truth and that you have a good faith reason for your requests. If you are not telling the truth, if you are misleading the court, or if you are serving or filing this document for an improper purpose, the court can find you in contempt or you can be prosecuted for not telling the truth.
